

AUDIO BOUTIQUE presents
TECHNO ELEMENTS 1.0

DETAILS

Alright, listen up folks - this one's for all who love to shake the ground into its very pieces by going full-on techno:

Resonance Sound proudly presents Techno Elements 1.0, the latest offspring of Audio Boutique's infamous series of sample libraries! Organic drums, weird vocal loops, hypnotic bass- and synthlines, gooseflesh up- and downlifters, inspiring constructions kits - it's all in there. However, you might wanna start with the diamond outshining it all: a moody, murmuring, beastly, real 303 is awaiting the fearless producer, coming in various flavors, degrees of freakiness and modes of temptation.

Once again, producers Ramon Zenker and Harald ("Harada") Aufmuth prove that they belong to the top-producers of contemporary club sound for a reason - so all that's left for you is to get your toys together and craft the next pounding techno smasher!

All loops are at 125 bpm, the Wav and Apple Loops format allows for simple drag'n'drop within your favorite DAW, plus the usual sampler presets (Kontakt, Battery, Live, EXS) help you to get to work in no time.

Ramon Zenker, one of the most experienced German producers, who is achieving remarkable successes with his productions in various fields of electronic music since two decades and is highly respected in the underground as well as mainstream circles, and Harald "Harada" Aufmuth, who's one of the new bright stars at the Minimal & Deep Techno horizon due to his productions on labels such as BluFin, Trapez, Micro.fon, Kiddaz.fm and Leftroom.
