

SONIQE SOUND
DEEP TECH ESSENCE

Deep Tech Essence is the debut release from Soniqe Sound here at Resonance Sound.

Influenced by the current deep tech scene, ranging from its more minimal aspect to the more melodic side. Always looking into the future of the genre introducing new types of sounds and grooves, blending styles and sound design techniques.

Think about artists like Enzo Siragusa, Reboot, Hot Since 82, Sidney Charles, ANOTR, Archie Hamilton, Dennis Cruz, Luuk Van Dijk, East End Dubs and labels like Moan, Fuse, Cecille, Deeperfect, NO ART and Eastenderz.

Inside the pack, you will find all the sounds you may need to create a complete modern-sounding track. Full drum kit loops (including split stems), bass loops, synth loops, drum hits, one shots for bass, synth and vocals, FXs and inspiring midi files.

All samples are appropriately tempo and key tagged (as needed) and carefully organised to maximise usability and sample browsing. Meticulously selected, processed and fine-tuned for release-ready productions. Focused on the deep tech sound but nonetheless useful for any electronic music genre like house, deep house, tech house and minimal.

Making use of all the latest and greatest plug-ins and analog sound generators goes without saying and are just one reason why this sample pack is going to blow your mind away. Immerse yourself into the underground sound that dominates clubs and festivals all around the world.
